A museum that does more than just display objects. It also provides visitors with new discoveries.

Opposite page national museums. In Tokyo, Kyoto, Osaka and elsewhere, the National Ainu Museum will become a new national museum in Hokkaido and the northernmost national museum in Japan. Aiming to transform appreciation of traditional Ainu culture, the museum will also highlight the diversity of contemporary Ainu culture and people from various perspectives.

Mission of the National Ainu Museum

The mission of the National Ainu Museum is to present a proper understanding of and respect for the Ainu people, Ainu culture and its environment. As such, the museum aims to enable all people to understand and appreciate the Ainu culture and people.

Various programs in which to experience Ainu culture

- Inside the local language
  - Learn the local languages spoken by the Ainu people, and experience Ainu culture in the Ainu way.
- "Miku" exhibition
  - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.
- "Asahikawa" exhibition
  - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.
- "Ainu in the World"
  - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.
- "Ainu in the World"
  - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.

Immerse yourself in the culture of the indigenous Ainu people, which has been cultivated amidst nature.

The National Ainu Park is an outdoor museum where visitors can experience firsthand the culture and lifestyle of the Ainu people. Visitors can observe and appreciate the Ainu people and their culture amidst nature.

Look Touch Feel Relax

A place where visitors can relax and appreciate Ainu culture amidst natural splendor.

Traditional performing arts programs

1. "Ainu in the World"
   - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.
2. "Ainu in the World"
   - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.
3. "Ainu in the World"
   - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.
4. "Ainu in the World"
   - A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.

Making and playing of traditional Ainu instruments

A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.

Traditional Ainu cuisine

A special exhibition highlighting the Ainu people, their history, and culture through the eyes of the Ainu people.